THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM SATURDAY Auguſt 30, to SATURDAY September 6, 1740.

LONDON, June 15.

WEDNESDAY laſt an Expreſs arrived at the Secretary's Office, with Advice that the Ferrol Squadron was actually ſail'd for the Weſt-Indies.

Sir Chaloner Ogle, with his Squadron is order'd Home from Gibraltar, whence in his Paſſage, he was within 8 Hours of meeting the Count de Clavijo with 5 Men of War who were waiting to intercept an Engliſh 50 Gun-Ship, which had a large Fleet of Merchant Men under Convoy.

An Expreſs arrived a few Days ſince from the Earl of Waldegrave, which occaſioned the holding of a Council, which ſat till 2 the next Morning: The Diſpatches brought by this Courier occaſions great Matter of Speculation among the Coffee-Houſe Politicians, and ſome ince talk of a Peace, while others ſay, the French will no longer remain Neuter.

June 18. Sir John Norris with a large Fleet of Men of War, moſtly of the Line, ſeveral Tranſports with Marines; and Bomb-Ketches, &c are on the Point of Sailing on a ſecret Expedition, ſuppoſed to be to ravage the Coaſt of Spain, and particularly St. Sebaſtians, where there are upwards of 40 Engliſh Veſſels, taken from us by 4 Spaniſh Privateers, who lie alſo there.

The ſeveral Officers under my Lord Cathcart, are all appointed, and have Orders to be in Readyneſs for Sailing, at the firſt Warning.

Two Spaniſh Privateers have been lately taken in the Channel; but the Number of our Ships taken is very Great, ſcarce a Day paſſing, but an Account comes of the Loſs of ſome of them, and that often Times in the very Sight of our own Coaſts.

The Princeſs Mary Princeſs of Heſſe, is gone to Hanover, where ſhe is to meet the Prince her Spouſe.

'Tis ſaid his Majeſty's Stay at Hanover will be as ſhort as poſſible, and that the Royal Palace at Kenſington, is order'd to be fitted up and got ready for the Reception of his Majeſty by the Month of Auguſt.

Extract of a Letter from Spithead, May 25.

This Morning 40 Sail of Merchant-Men arrived here, and amongſt them the Store-ſhip for Admiral Vernon, ſo that we have nothing to hinder us from Sailing, our Convoy is two 60 Gun Ships, which are to join Admiral Vernon, after having ſeen us ſafe into the Leward Iſlands.

There are 23 Ships of the Line in this Road, with a Flag at the Main-Top-Maſt Head of the Victory of 110 Braſs Guns, Sir John Norris is expected down every Day to command this Squadron; Tranſports for the Marines are coming in every Day from the River, but they will hardly embark before Auguſt, they are aſſembling very faſt in the Iſle of Wight, and I reckon there are now encamp'd 6 Regiments; Brigadier Wentworth commands them, and my Lord Cathcart is expected there in Eight or Ten Days.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 11.

We have now five Companies here compleat, commanded by Capt. Clarke, Cosby, Provoſt Cuyler, and Stevens. Who are all encamp'd on the Common and every Day Exercis'd, and it is thought will make as good an Appearance as any on the Continent of America.

On Saturday laſt arrived here the Sloop Dove Capt. Jauncey in 16 Days from Coraccoa, by whom we hear, that a Spaniſh Privateer, in the Sloop late Perrenchief, has cut 3 Ships out of Back-Stern in St. Chriſtophers

We have Advice, that one Ford a Mullatto Man, Commander of a Pettyaugue belonging to Jamaica, with 17 Hands and Four Swivel Guns, went on ſome Part of the ſouth ſide of Cuba, and was out but about 14 Days, and then brought in a Spaniſh Sloop into St. Anne's, which had on Board 350 half Barrels of Powder, and 300 ſmall Arms, and 3000 Pieces of Eight.

CHARLES-TOWN,

Saturday Afternoon 4 o'Clock, Sept. 6. Laſt now arrived here Capt. Wilkinſon in 8 Weeks from London, and Six from the Downs, (an uncommon Paſſage to this Place) by whom we have the following freſh Advices.

LONDON, July 8.

Yeſterday came Advice, that the Baltick Merchant of Briſtol, of 300 Tons, 18 Guns, and 16 Men, bound from South Carolina, was in her Paſſage taken off Scilly by a Spaniſh Privateer, after a ſmart Engagement of four Hours, and carried into St. Sebaſtian's, where the Spaniards ſhot a Gentleman in the Preſence of his Wife, who were Paſſengers on Board for London, which Gentleman is ſuppos'd to be Coll. Braithwaite, one of his Majeſty's Council of that Province, and formerly Governor of one of the Forts belonging to the Royal African Company. The ſaid Ship has on Board 1200 Barrels of Rice, and other Goods to a conſiderable Value.

Commodore Anſon, in the Centurion, and Four more Men of War, with a Thouſand Marines on Board them, and the Wager Store Ship, with Arms, a Train of Artillery, &c. will ſpeedily ſail from Portſmouth for America.

Four Regiments of Foot are now order'd to embark on Board Sir John Norris's Squadron.

It's ſtrongly reported, that next Week an Embargo will be laid on all Ships in general.

We hear that 6 Regiments of Foot & 4 of Dragoons, will be rais'd with all ſpeed, and that Thirty more Men of War will be immediately commiſſion'd.

The Ships bound for Virginia, the Straights, Portugal, &c. being near Seventy, ſail'd from St. Helen's the 20th of June, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ships the Chatham and Winchester, of Fifty Guns each, and the Dragon and Rye.

Yeſterday came Advice, that the Owners Adventure, Capt. Fox, bound for Dublin from Bourdeaux, is taken by the Spaniards, and carried into St. Sebaſtians.

As is alſo the Snow John, Capt. Rowland, bound from Falmouth for South-Carolina by Two Spaniſh Men of War.

It's ſaid that Orders are gone down to Sir John Norris at Portſmouth, for him to take on Board 12,000 Men for the Uſe of the Squadron under his Command.

We hear that Two Fifty, two Forty, and Four Twenty Gun Ships, are order'd to the South Weſt Side of Ireland, to cruiſe from Port to Port, and are to be reliev'd every Six Weeks by Ships of the ſame Force, that will be appointed for that Purpoſe.

We hear that Eighteen Men out of a Company, of the three Regiments of Foot Guards, and a Draught from the Horſe, will be ſent from Hounſlow to Portſmouth, to embark on the intended Expedition.

We hear that the Troops under the Command of the Lord Catheart, with the Men of War that Convoy them, are to be join'd in the Weſt Indies by Admiral Vernon's Squadron, and by the Troops which on their Arrival ſhall be rais'd in his Majeſty's Colonies in America.

His Majeſty's Store ſhip the Wager is ſail'd through the Downs for Portſmouth, to join Commodore Anſon and the other Men of War, in order to ſail from thence directly for America.

Orders have been given, that no Grain of any ſort ſhall be exported at this Juncture into any foreign Parts.

On Saturday a moſt magnificent Tent was pitch'd in St. James's Park for the Lord Catheart, which is to be ſent to Portſmouth next Week.

CADIZ, June 15.

Two Ships have lately ſail'd from hence for La Vera Cruz, with divers Orders and Commiſſions from the Court for the Governors of the Weſt Indies.

MADRID, June 21.

The Court has receiv'd Advice, that the Squadron commanded by Admiral Pintado, which lately ſail'd from Ferrol, put into that Port again a few Days after, without attempting any thing againſt the Engliſh. The King judging that this Admiral had not punctually obey'd his Orders, has taken the Command of that Squadron from him, and given it to Vice-Admiral Don Rodrigue de Torres, who ſet out Yeſterday for Ferrol; and it is ſaid he has Orders to go in queſt of the Engliſh Squadrons in the Mediterranean. The Count de la Marck, Ambaſſador of France, has lately had ſome particular Conferences with the Miniſtry about ſettling the Treaty of Commerce between the two Crowns, which, it's ſaid, is upon the Point of being ſigned.

Newport, July 4. On Tueſday Night laſt arrived here Capt. Snell, in 29 Days from Jamaica, who informs, that a Dutch Veſſel arrived there from Liſbon on the 26th of April laſt which came from my Lord Tyrawley, who is ſuppos'd to be Envoy at Liſbon who brought a Packet to Admiral Vernon, and had 500 Guineas for the Run, and 100 Guineas for himſelf. She brought nothing but the Packets from the Envoy to the Admiral, which was to inform him, That Nine Sail of Spaniſh Ships of the Line had got out of Cadiz, while Admiral Haddock went to Port-Mahon to defend that Place.

CHARLES-TOWN,

On Sunday laſt arrived here Capt. Laugdon, and Capt. Hall, with two Prizes.

Capt. Wilkinſon ſays, that a Rupture with France ſeem'd unavoidable, and that when he left England, 'twas believ'd that France was on the Point of declaring.

By Capt. Davis from Jamaica, we hear of Admiral Vernon's being gone to intercept the Ferrol Squadron, but was oblig'd to return to Jamaica without meeting with it, having in his Voyage met with very bad Weather, whereby his Fleet had been greatly damaged.

On Monday Evening the Rev. Mr. George Whitefield ſet ſail for Boſton, with a very fair Wind.

We hear that the Spaniſh Privateer which lately viſited this Coaſt, has chas'd ſeveral Veſſels ſince ſhe left it, viz. off the Capes of Virginia, the River Delaware, (where ſhe fought two Ships, and was oblig'd to ſheer off) off Long-Iſland, Cape May; and off Cape Hatteras took a Sloop, Capt. Tilden Commander, bound from Jamaica for Boſton.
